

Instructions for Certification of Funds

F-1 degree students

- Must show funding for one year or until the end date of their I-20 (whichever is shorter)

J-1 degree students

- Must show funding until the end date of their DS-2019

Short-term non-degree students

- Must show funding until the end date of their I-20/DS-2019

General Guidelines

- Funding documents must be no more than 3 months old. They can be in the form of bank statements, award letters, employment letters (including TA, GA offer letters) etc. Documents must be in English or have an official English translation
- For change of status, in case of a bank statement, include statements for at least three consecutive months
- Estimated living expenses remain the same for all F-1 and J-1 students, regardless of whether the student is living on campus or off campus
- Funding total for Rutgers-undergraduate and graduate students (except RBHS students) is based on 24 credit load registration per academic year and living expenses for one year
 - To calculate tuition and fees per credit, divide the total by 24; to calculate living expenses per month, divide by 12
- Funding total for Rutgers-RBHS students is based on 18 credit load registration per academic year, living expenses for one year, health insurance, books and supplies.
 - To calculate tuition and fees per credit, divide the total by 18; to calculate living expenses per month, divide by 12
- Funding total for short-term non-degree students varies by program, see program administrator for details. Living expenses are based on one year
 - To calculate living expenses per month, divide by 12
- For dependents, add $5,000 for spouse and $4,000 per child
- There are limited employment opportunities available in the United States for an F-1 student. For this reason, a student must have documentary evidence that they have the financial ability to pay for tuition and living expenses while studying in the United States

Reminders

- F-2 dependent spouses and children are not permitted to work under any circumstances. J-2 Exchange Visitor dependents may apply for employment authorization from U.S. Citizenship & Immigration Services. Funds from J-2 employment may not, however, be used to support the Exchange Visitor and his/her family.
- Please contact your international student adviser if there are any questions regarding proof of funding documents
